Good afternoon Faye!
I'm Doug Larm, SPD CIS, and work as the regional lead analyst at the Washington State Fusion Center. I've heard from one of my analysts, Jeff Cartwright, that you spoke to him about his upcoming travel to Denver for the Foundations of Intelligence Analyst Training/FIAT. If there are questions on the travel, I hope to be able to answer them for you as I am the one designated to input the Purchase Orders for contract travel. Perhaps there is a time slot on your schedule that we could meet and discuss how you would like the paper trail to be established for contractors that work at the Fusion Center? I have a full slate of them: Charles Ross, Jeff Cartwright, Spencer Hayne, Barry Mattson, Jeff Giaquinto and Molly Mee. All of the contractors have recently obtained their 'X' numbers (formally referred to as 'T' numbers or temporary) and are able to work through SPD systems. However, for purposes of accountability I am responsible for ensuring travel, training and monthly labor hours are certified/validated before submitting to you/Chris Steel.
Welcome on board and looking forward to working with you on contract 'stuff'.
Doug
