Good Morning Angie,

Thanks for taking the time to speak with me this morning.

As mentioned, I am the primary point of contact here at NCA regarding the City of Seattle and existing contracts for Palo Alto orders. Copied to the email is my inside counterpart, Jessica Massart. She is the one who does all of the actual hard work between the two of us!

We have documented both the billing and shipping addresses and have you and Doug in our system. I'll be visiting with members of the DoIT team this Wednesday to chat about the datacenter project and I will reach out to Jess Nash to see if he will be available for a brief visit while I am there.

We look forward to working with everybody.

Thanks again,

Hi Angelita,

Thanks for sending this over, I noticed the shipping address is to a different address than what we indicated on the quote. Could you please confirm where the device needs to be shipped to?

Thank you,
