DAVE REDEMANN - Detective, Seattle Police Department Criminal Intelligence Section. Dave has been a Police Officer for 28 years. He was assigned to a special Undercover Unit that specialized in Surveillance and Undercover Operations. Dave has worked numerous long-term surveillance cases working on organized Mexican drug traffickers as well as a number of complex criminals. He has also worked a number of the DEA (Drug Enforcement Agency) OCDETF (Organized Crime Drug Enforcement Task Force) cases involving almost round the clock surveillance for months and months on end. Dave has thousands of hours of “live” mobile and stationary surveillance. Dave was asked by the FBI to take over their “Physical Surveillance” school for the Washington State Criminal Justice Training Center. Dave revamped and expanded the FBI surveillance school into what it is today.

BRANDON JAMES – Detective, Seattle Police Department. Brandon has been a police officer for over 10 years. He has worked in Narcotics and currently assigned to the Criminal Intelligence Section loaned to the FBI Safe Streets Task Force. In his past and current assignments he has performed extensive amounts of surveillance. He is also an instructor for the Washington State Criminal Justice Training Center surveillance and undercover schools. He has instructed both schools around the country for local, state and federal agencies.
