Dear Advisory Committee Member,

The Criminal Justice Club is hosting a networking event and needs your help. Our names are Sarah Robinson and Nathan Worden, respectively the President and Treasurer of the Criminal Justice Club. This year we are working to focus the club more on professionalism and networking. In this spirit, our main fundraising event this year will be a Networking Silent Auction. We are asking advisory committee members, if they can, to donate some of their time and expertise. We are looking for donations of time such as the opportunity to go to coffee, lunch, dinner, or a similar meal with you. We would also love to have donations of shadow days, tours, or other opportunities to interact with you in the field. We know you are very busy people and we are only asking for a donation of any time that you can spare. We would auction that time off under the title of your choosing, such as "Coffee with a Police Officer" or "Shadow Day with the Medical Examiner's Office" and with a starting amount of your choosing. Then it would be up to the winner to contact you and arrange for a time that works with your schedule.

We hope this event is successful and will be an annual Criminal Justice Club event from here on out. But we cannot do that without your help. If you cannot donate any of your time for the auction, we ask that you attend the event. The event will take place in the evening on April 24th on the Seattle University campus. We will have catering, music, and a chance to mingle with current students, both undergraduate and graduate, as well as professors and each other.

If you can spare any time we would greatly appreciate your help. Please contact me, Sarah Robinson, at robins36@seattleu.edu if you are willing to participate in donating your time. Please also R.S.V.P. to the event if you know you can attend to the same email.

Thank you so much for your consideration, your time, and your participation.

Sincerely,

Sarah Robinson
Criminal Justice Club President

And

Nathan Worden
Criminal Justice Club Treasurer.
