As soon as you have time to do it. How obscure is that? The deadline for grant submission is May 19th. But, I think the sooner I can provide the stats to the group the better...

Are you buried? This doesn't have to be very detailed, just a high level overview...

I appreciate any time you can throw at this...

The UASI security grant has become available and I would like to send out some updated stats to everyone that wants to apply.

Thank you in advance for anything you can share.
