From: Joe Harris
To: Larm, Doug
Subject: Re: Interview
Date: Wednesday, April 01, 2015 2:59:22 PM

Hi, Doug! Thanks. I guess the pass is a real mess. How about we plan on Monday and then follow up via email? Also would I still be able to meet with the King County guy? Probably need an hour with him but am flexible with that too. It's coming along great and should be an awesome paper! I'll make sure you get a copy.

Be safe!
Joe

Sent from my iPhone

On Apr 1, 2015, at 10:23 AM, Larm, Doug <Doug.Larm@seattle.gov> wrote:

> HI Joe! Sorry to hear about the pass….better to be safe than sorry especially when it comes to traveling through Snoqualmie Pass. Well, so far, Monday is looking open but scheduling is like trying to herd cats. I will be in-out next week at the behest of incoming assistant chief so my time isn't my own. If you call I could be ready for short-notice but no more than 30-45min time block. Otherwise, interview phone and email sounds plausible as well too.
> Doug
>
> ---
>
> From: Joe Harris [mailto:harris_joe@live.com]
> Sent: Wednesday, April 01, 2015 7:00 AM
> To: Larm, Doug
> Subject: Interview
>
> Doug,
>
> Good morning, friend! Unfortunately Snoqualmie Pass is in horrible condition with a travel time of almost two hours from Ellensburg to North Bend and chains required. Regretfully, I will not be able to make it in time; I could still get there but considerably late. I also remember you mentioning a brief that you spend considerable time preparing for today so I think its better if we reschedule.
>
> I am planning on being in Seattle on Monday (4/6) meeting with my mentor and anytime that day would be great with me. If Monday is no good, what other days work? Worst case scenario we can do the interview via phone and/or email. I would have no problem sending you the interview questions and conversing via email.

Respectfully,
Joe Harris