Sgt. Ziemer,

Thank you for your response. It doesn't appear to be you in the referenced photo (screen capture) as you (and I assume your squad) continued northbound on 4th then turned east with the crowd. I need to know who remained behind, be it ever so briefly, at the Molotov scene.

Regarding this particular photo, I am not looking for the subject who threw the Molotov that ignited in the street, but instead another possibly associated person.

If you happen to see or speak to Sgt. Adams, could you have him take a look and get back to me.

Thank you.

Detective Rik Hall

It is hard to tell but the one in the yellow kerchief may be me. I've reviewed by BWV of that day and you can see the Molotov emerge from the crowd but I wasn't able to identify who threw it.

All concerned:

To be clear, I am trying to identify which officers are in the photo (attached) right near the Molotov on the street near Compton Lumber on September 7, 2020.

I am hopeful that their bodycams may contain footage of individuals who I believe may have formulated a plan to damage the SPOG building.

I look forward to hearing from you.

~Rik
